

NSF Grants Terminated under Trump 2.0

In an unprecedented and possibly illegal action, the NSF has terminated over 1,000 grants for scientific research and education projects since April 18, 2025, and terminations continue. These data were collected by Grant Watch by crowdsourcing from researchers and program administrators, as the administration has not released information on these terminations.

